

Kentuckiana Children's Center
1810 Brownsboro Road
Louisville, KY 40206
502-893-7227

May 28, 2009

Dear Friends of Chiropractic and Kentuckiana Children's Center,

It is with bittersweet sentiment that after five years with Kentuckiana Children's Center we announce the resignation of Dr. Rebekah A. Wittman DC, DACCP. Dr. Wittman will be resigning from her position as clinic doctor and relocating closer to her family in Indiana. Along with her resignation comes the need for a new full time staff doctor. We are asking for your assistance in this search process. Kentuckiana will be accepting applications in June and July for a new full time clinic staff doctor. The following details outline what will need to be included in the application and the qualities that Kentuckiana requires. We ask that you please forward this letter to all potential applicants in your program.

Kentuckiana Children's Center opened in 1957 under the direction and leadership of Dr. Lorraine M. Golden. We are a 501c3 not for profit Children's Chiropractic Clinic, 98 % of our child client population have been diagnosed with Autism and Associated Disorders (ASD).

Applicants please call or e-mail Jean Elizabeth Grabowski for a short conversation and to receive an application form. 502-893-7227 or je_kcc@hotmail.com. The application form must accompany CV following information.

Qualifications:

1. Doctor of Chiropractic
2. The completion of at least one year and evidence of intent to complete diplomate program in pediatrics or neurology or Diplomate in pediatrics or neurology
3. Long term commitment 3 – 5 years
4. Experience working with the special needs and ASD pediatric population

The Mission of Kentuckiana Children's Center is to improve the lives of children by providing a foundation for healing through integrative chiropractic care.

Application: Filled out and returned with the following information.

1. Current Curriculum Vitae
2. Head shot
3. Sample of writing/research skills (case report and a one page on outcomes reporting of a case)
4. One to two paragraphs that indicate the applicants experience and/ or knowledge of the following topics in relation to our current client base 98 % Autism Spectrum and Associated Disorders:
 - a. Sensory Processing Disorder
 - b. CranioSacral Therapy
 - c. Occupational Therapy
 - d. Nutrition for the special needs population
 - e. Down Syndrome
 - f. DAN!
 - g. Biomedical Testing
 - h. Social Counseling/ Mental and Emotional Therapy
 - i. Insurance/ Billing
5. List of five references with contact information.
Name, address, phone number(s), and e-mail address.

Please direct all inquiries to Jean Elizabeth Grabowski at Kentuckiana Children's Center.

Jean Elizabeth Grabowski
1810 Brownsboro Road
Louisville, KY 40206
502-893-7227
Je_kcc@hotmail.com

Sincerely,

Jean Elizabeth Grabowski
Executive Director

Sharon A. Vallone, DC, FICCP
Board Chair

The Mission of Kentuckiana Children's Center is to improve the lives of children by providing a foundation for healing through integrative chiropractic care.